

Nan Virginia Hagin

November 6, 1919 - March 23, 2016

On March 23 Jesus took his angel home.

She was Mama, Grandma Nan, Aunt Nan and Nonnie to so many, the love they had for her and her love for others will never be forgotten.

Nan was born November 6, 1919 to James C. and Annie Hewett Buzbee and lived for 70 years in the Ruskin area, she then moved to Levy County, residing there for 26 years. She first married the love of her life, Charles E. Pitts of Georgia. Charles and Nan lived and raised their children in Ruskin, where Charles became a tomato farmer and cattle rancher. Tragedy struck in 1963, when Charles died, leaving Nan a widow. Nan, being the strong southern belle that she was, stepped up, with her sons and continued running the farm, until eventually her sons took over. During this time, she took on the task of raising her only two grandchildren at the time, Jenny and Sheila.

A devout Christian, she brought her children and granddaughters up in the Baptist church, and lived by her faith daily. Raising her granddaughters they called her Mama, never Grandmother, as she was the only mother they had. She loved hunting and fishing, spending summer's in Okeechobee and winters at Gulf Hammock. She instilled in her children and grandchildren a love for the outdoors and the simpler things in life. Nan remained a widow until 1988, when she married Mabry A. Hagin. They both lived their lives to the fullest, in each others company, doing the things that they both loved. Together they would sit by the campfire, go through the woods looking for "lighter pine" or their favorite past time, playing cards.

They loved family and would host, what came to be called The Wild Meat Fest, a birthday celebration for Nan.

Family and friends would travel for hours to attend.

After the death of Mabry, Nan would spend time with her beloved sister, Lillian.

They would visit back and forth, travel, and do everything together.

There was no greater bond between two sisters, than the one that Lillian and Nan shared.

The last 8 years of her life, she lived with her eldest son, Edward and his wife, Linda.

She was active and enjoyed her walks, cooking and playing

Text Twist but when her health started to fail, Linda, Edward, a dedicated Hospice Nurse and CNA's took care of her through her final years.

They were by her side whenever she needed them.

Words cannot express the love, admiration and gratitude that is felt for what they did for our mama.

Nan is survived by her sons,

Charles E. And Linda Pitts, Morriston, Fl;

James R. And Sandy Pitts, Alabama;

Terry H. And Jodie Pitts, Inglis, Fl.;

“ Aunt Nan was a powerful and strong Godly woman. She managed a family by herself and the grace of God, and made it successful. She was loved by all who knew her, and she sure could make a heck of a pie on short notice. Her sweetness will always bring great memories for me from my childhood, and on into adult hood. I think God was out of pies and needed a new bakes, so he called Aunt Nan home. To God be the Glory, he took another Angel home. See you in heaven. Love you.

“ My most fondest memories of Aunt Nan were as a small girl and going over to her house to play with Jenny and Sheila. I am her niece, but she always made me feel just like one of her girls.

Aunt Nan was married to my mom's brother, Charles. Uncle Charles passed away when I was two, so all my memories are of Aunt Nan and her children, my cousins, at family gatherings. She was such a strong woman and loved Jesus and her family dearly. I am so very grateful to have had her in my life and will never forget her. I will remember her smile, her laugh and her AWESOME cooking. You are with Christ now, Aunt Nan. May you rest in peace. Until we meet again, I love you.

“ My heart is saddened by the death of this lovely lady. I went to church with Nan as a child, as she and her husband were raising their children. I married and moved from Ruskin in 1954, but from time to time have come across Nan and Ettie in restruants etc. when I visited my sister, Jewel Buzbee. She has left behind her a legacy worth remembering. I know your hearts are saddened at her loss, but God can bring healing and comfort to you in time. That is my prayer for each of her family members. Heaven has gained an angel!! May each of you be blessed by the many memories you have made through the years!!

Prayers for the family,

“ I did not personally know Mrs. Hagin but I could tell that she was a sweet and loving person. It's sad how death can take someone so dear to us away in one moment. I'd like you to know that "God is close to the broken hearted"(Psalms 34:18) and he will remain close to you in this time of grief. My most deepest condolences to The family.
